Upcoming Services in the Round Church

Sunday, February 2: The Presentation of Christ and Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be celebrated with Holy Communion (said) at 8am and Choral Holy Communion and the blessing of candles to be used for the upcoming year at 10:30am.

Candlemas is the 40th day after Christmas, and brings to a conclusion the Christmas and Epiphany seasons. On this day we remember the visit of Mary and Joseph to the Temple bringing the infant Jesus to be dedicated to the Lord, according to ancient Jewish custom. An allusion to this child's future begins to appear: "Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel," says the aged Simeon, who immediately recognizes the child as the Messiah for whom he had waited his whole life. "And when the parents brought in the child Jesus... then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: for mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel." According to ancient custom, on this day the whole congregation joins in procession carrying lighted candles and, with the aged Simeon, proclaims Jesus as the light of the world, recalling the sacrifice this child and his mother will make when he is led to the Cross.

Reading Group during the Epiphany Season: Midwinter with Middlemarch

George Eliot's masterwork, Middlemarch, was originally published in eight installments, released one by one over eight months, in 1871-72. It is now divided into eight 'books.' We will meet on Tuesday evenings for eight weeks to reflect upon the novel, one book at a time, beginning with the Prelude and Book I on January 7, 2020.

When: Tuesdays at 7pm, continuing until February 25th.

First time as well as seasoned 're-readers' welcome!

If you are interested or have questions please speak with St George's parishioner Marilyn Orr, or contact her at marilynorr41@gmail.com.

Marilyn is Professor Emeritus of English at Laurentian University. Her most recent book is George Eliot's Religious Imagination: A Theopoetics of Evolution, published by Northwestern University Press in 2018.

Fellowship needs some help

I'm still looking for some more volunteers for the Sunday Fellowship Teams. We seem to be a hungry crowd after the morning service, especially the children! The teams are set up to be on duty every six weeks.

Even if you are not able to commit to serving or coming in early to set up perhaps you could provide extra food for one of the teams, which would be greatly appreciated. Please let me know if you feel this is something you could do. Thank you. Mary Hills (902 462-6422 or maryhills41@gmail.com)

Rekeying of the Round Church and Parish Hall

Please note that the Round Church and the Parish Hall will be rekeyed in the next few weeks, as part of our Safer Church requirements. Keyholders will be contacted by the Parish Office with instructions on how they can obtain new keys. If you are a key holder and have not yet submitted your Covenant of Care and Police Record Check to the Parish Office, please do so as soon as possible. If you have questions, please speak with Jordan Gracie in the office or with the Rector.

YouthNet Update from Sarah Griffin, Executive Director

This year at YouthNet we are excited to continue one-on-one music lessons every Tuesday, as well as one-on-one tutoring at King's College every Monday. We are currently building our volunteer base for the rest of the week. On Wednesdays most youth go to Centennial pool, while a few youth head next door to A Tiny Lab daycare where they are big buddies to children at Tiny Lab. Thursdays we are bringing in a dance instructor, as well as cultivating a partnership with Wonder'neath art studio. Fridays we head to the Oval to work with the Oval speed skating program. Sarah and I are also happy to have two new staff working with the teen program, Nyon Butros and Hannah Mills. Teen program began this week, and Hannah and Nyon are already developing a good rapport with the teens. Lastly, three more students started coming to YouthNet's after school program this semester, Bianca, Brielle, and JJ. They are great kids, and add a lot of life to the program.
