

Music at Communion I know that my Redeemer liveth - G. F. Handel (1685-1759)

Barbara Kaill, soprano; Kirsty Money, violin.

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.

For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first fruits of them that sleep.

tone VI

CHRIST OUR passover is sacrificed for us: / therefore let us~ keep the^feast;
Not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wick-ed-ness; / but with the unleavened bread of sin-cer-i~ty and^truth.

Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; / death hath no more do-min-ion~ o-ver^him.

For in that he died, he died unto sin once: /
but in that he liveth, he liv-eth~ un-to^God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed un-to sin, / but alive unto God, through Je-sus~ Christ our^Lord.

Christ is risen from the dead, /
and become the first-fruits of~ them that^slept.

For since by man came death, /
by man came also the resur-rect-ion~ of the^dead.

For as in Adam all die, / even so in Christ shall all be~ made a^live.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the~ Ho-ly^Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, / world with-out end~. A-men.

Parishioners will have noticed the freshening-up of paint on the interior of the Round Church these past months. Most recently, the vestry has been repainted, using the white and gray of the main interior but with a touch of blue trim for accent. This has considerably brightened the room. Thanks for all this work, so carefully done, are due to Edmonds Landscaping and their dedicated crew of painters. The crew has also periodically helped Jim Rawding with the immense task of cleaning the church, for which we are very grateful.

Thank you to everyone who has helped to make this Holy Week a truly beautiful and contemplative time. This week requires extra attention from so many – our faithful Priest-in-Charge and assisting clergy, the Altar Guild, those who say the Daily Offices, the Music Director and the Choir, the Sunday School Superintendent and teachers, the greeters, the servers, the cleaners, the fellowship teams, the Sextons, the Spiritual Development team, the Parish Administrator, and the many individuals who take on extra tasks at this time of year and make sure that everything is taken care of. It's amazing how it all comes together. Thank you! Deo gratias!
