

The Choir is on Break for the Summer

The Parish Choir takes some well-deserved time off before things get underway again in September, and we thank them for the leadership they have given to our worship over the past year. During this break many of the singers will be traveling, organizing musical camps, teaching, and working to become even better musicians. We look forward to hearing the fruits of their labour in the fall! The choir returns on Sunday, September 16.

Daily Offices offered at the Little Dutch Church

The Daily Offices of 9am Morning Prayer, 5:30pm Evening Prayer, and 5pm Sunday Evensong have moved to the Little Dutch Church for the summer. All services will return to the Round Church at the end of September. Sunday Morning Prayer at 10 am and Wednesday 10 am Holy Communion (said) remain in the Round Church.

Induction of the Rector

The Rector's formal Induction will take place on the Feast of Saint Matthew, Friday, September 21st at 7 p.m. in the Round Church. More details about the service will be announced as the date approaches.

Last March, Father Hatt was formally "Instituted" as Rector by the Archbishop. The "Institution" is a brief service in which the bishop commits to the priest the responsibility for the "care of souls" within the parish.

The "Induction" is a public recognition of the new rector, by the people of the parish, in which the new incumbent is given responsibility for the "temporal affairs" of the parish, and in which priest and people pledge to work together and uphold one another in prayer and mission.

The Address will be given by the Hon. Mayann Francis, the former Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia.

Fall Reading Group

Dr Wayne Hankey, Emeritus Professor of Classics at Dalhousie University will lead a reading group in the parish again this autumn. The group will consider Jane Austen's Persuasion, Graham Green's The Quiet American, and Dorothy Day's From Union Square to Rome. Dr Hankey writes, "We shall consider them as offering different answers to the ancient Hellenic and Christian idea that humans cannot act without doing evil." The sessions will be held on Monday evenings at 7 p.m. in the Round Church, beginning tomorrow, September 10th, and continue to the end of November. Copies of some of the texts and background notes prepared by Professor Hankey can be found on the parish website at www.roundchurch.ca. Click "Worship" and then "Study Groups and Retreats".

Property Day

The Property Committee is hosting a "Property Day" on Saturday, September 15th from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. We are looking for volunteers to come together to help complete a long list of minor repairs, painting and other odd jobs around the parish campus. Many hands make light work! There will be a few stations led by some handy members of the congregation. Volunteers should feel free to come and go as they please throughout the day. We also hope to serve some lunch. Please email Uli vom Hagen (e: ulrich.vomhagen@gmail.com), Chair of the Property Committee, if you would like to help.

YouthNet Summer Update

YouthNet had another incredible summer full of day camps and camping trips. Thank you to our summer staff Chiara, Anne and Sarah who worked very hard to organize the camps. We started our summer camping at Rissers Beach where the children spent three days swimming in the ocean. We continued with our Busy Bees Camp for 5 to 8 year olds which involved various day trips around Halifax, followed by our Creative Cats camp where the children learned to cook Italian food, make Venetian masks and visited Clay Cafe. We took 6 female youth to Keji for a week long canoe trip and brought a group of 10 to 13 year olds on a day hike at Cape Split and camping at Shubie Park. We also had a science camp hosted by SuperNOVA which focused on oceans and water. During our final camp 'Music and Theatre' the children worked on improv, sang a song and learned various dances including hip hop, Latin, African and Contemporary. This year's Extravajam was a huge hit - thanks to everyone who joined us! We had 40 youth at our camps this summer - typically around 15 youth every week!
