YouthNet afterschool music programme starts in the fall.

In the fall, YouthNet will be starting a new music program during the regular after-school programming! Youth will be paired up one-on-one with a volunteer music tutor who will help teach the children a new instrument each Tuesday from 3-5pm. If you are interested in volunteering to teach a youth a new instrument, or have any working instruments that you could donate or lend to YouthNet, get in touch with Sarah Griffin at director@stgeorgesyouthnet.ca for more information. Thank you!

YouthNet's School Lunch Programme needs help!

YouthNet's lunch program resumes this Monday, Sept. 9th, and will continue to feed 23 students at Joseph Howe School lunch every school-day. Hannah Griffin, the new lunch program coordinator, is looking for either individuals or groups to sign up for one day/month to cook lunch on that day. The kids will love your homemade chilli, lasagna, chicken wraps - you name it! Approach her during coffee hour to chat more about it.

A reading group will meet at St George's this autumn on Monday evenings at 7 p.m., led by Dr Wayne Hankey, Emeritus Professor of Classics at Dalhousie University. New Kneelers for the Little Dutch Church

Today at the 10:30 a.m. Holy Communion we dedicate new kneelers for the Little Dutch Church. Thank you to Elizabeth Henderson for overseeing this project.

Sunday School will resume on the 15th at the regular time (beginning just before the sermon at the 10:30am Sunday service)

Sunday School is in need of some volunteers to run a nursery program for toddlers. This would begin as the sermon starts 10:30am Sunday service. It is a short lesson with minimal preparation involved. We're hoping to put together a rotation so we can run the nursery program at least twice a month. Teens are welcome to help out! Contact Meghan Jamieson for more information or to volunteer. (See the back of this leaflet for her contact information)

Traditional and Early Music Ensembles at St. George's

Flutist Jennifer Publicover is honoured to bring arts education programming in early and traditional music as a tenant to St George's, beginning this September. She directs ensembles in these genres which are open to instrumentalists and singers, ages 13 - adult, arranging sessions and bringing in specialist guest instructors tailored to the needs of each group. She invites you to view and share the web pages of these ensembles:

www.jenniferpublicover.com/baroque-ensemble

www.jenniferpublicover.com/trad-ensemble

St. George's is also the new home of Jennifer's beautiful Flemish-style harpsichord, which will both support her early/Baroque music programming and be available for use by St. George's for other early music endeavours. She extends her sincere thanks to the whole St. George's community for this opportunity. Welcome to St George's, Jennifer!

Monthly Bible Study

Here is an opportunity for those available during the day. We'll meet once a month for a trial period (September, October, November) at the home of Jan Connors. If there is a desire to continue, we will resume in January 2020.

We will gather, primarily as lay people to read/discuss the daily lessons as we follow the Book of Common Prayer weekday lectionary (printed in the bulletin or found beginning on page xvi of the BCP) using the St. Peter Publications Commentaries as a resource. We'll consider how these daily readings make a difference on our spiritual journey and in how we live our everyday lives.

Where: 5524 Heatherwood Court, Unit A301, Halifax (north end of Novalea Drive opposite 'the Pit'; parking available and directly on the #7 bus route)

When: 1:30pm to 3:00pm (tea/coffee provided)

- Friday, September 27th
- Friday, October 25th
- Friday, November 22nd

All are welcome. If you are interested or have questions, give Jan a call at 902 414 6559 or email jconnors@eastlink.ca.

Remember Shoeboxes for Seafarers

by Patricia Martinson

I blog not, neither do I tweet.

And e-mail has not, I believe anything to do with Royal of that ilk.

And app

appears to be the short form of a number of words,

(But which one?)

And which fill "N" pages

Amounting to no less than

Ninety-four entries to desist from their meanderings.
