Introit Psalm 33:1-9

tone VIII.1

RE-JOICE IN the Lord, O ye righteous; /

for it becometh well the just to be thank-ful.

Praise the Lord with harp: / sing praises unto him with the lute, and instru-ment of ten strings.

Sing unto the Lord a new song: /sing praises lustily with a good cou-rage.

For the word of the Lord is true, /and all his works are faith-ful.

He loveth righteousness and judge-ment: /

the earth is full of the good-ness of the[^]Lord.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made, / and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the sea together, as it were in a bot-tle, / and layeth up the deep, as in a trea-sure[^]house.

Let all the earth fear the Lord; / stand in awe of him, all ye that dwell in the world.

For he spake, and it was done: / he commanded, and it stood fast.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the Ho-ly[^]Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, / world with-out end. A-men.

Second Sunday after Easter

Christ's parable of the shepherd escapes us not by being obscure, but by being so plain. The meaning is so familiar that we overlook it. What does he say? A man cares naturally for his own things. He does not have to make himself care. The shepherd who has bought the ground and fenced the fold and tended the lambs, whose own the sheep are to keep or to sell, cares for them. He would run some risk, rather than see them mauled; if he had only a heavy stick in his hand, he would beat off the wolf. Christ does not boast, as a man among men, that he loves mankind more than any other man, through a higher refinement of virtue. He says that he cares for us as no one else can, because we are his. We do not belong to any other man; we belong to him. His dying for us in this world is the natural effect of his unique care. It is the act of our Creator.

- Austin Farrer, The Crown of the Year: Weekly Paragraphs for the Holy Sacrament
