

Communion Motet Ego sum panis vivus – G.P. da Palestrina (1525-94)

Ego sum panis vivus.

Patres vestri manducaverunt manna in deserto, et mortui sunt.

Hic est panis de caelo descendens: si quis ex ipso manducaverit, non morietur.

I am the living bread.

Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

Biweekly Compline in the Round Church

Are there too many distractions at home to be able to "go into your cell and stay there" for any dedicated amount of time? Now there is opportunity to allow the nave of the Round Church to become that enclosure, at least for a little while, where you can open yourself to the experience. Join us in silence -- following a simple Office of said Compline -- for 20 minutes of silent prayer and contemplation, listening for God's voice speaking to your soul.

Wednesday nights bi-weekly, beginning September 26th 8:30pm - 9pm

Induction of the Rector

The Rector's Induction will take place this Friday, September 21st at 7 pm in the Round Church. The service will be a Choral Evensong for the Feast of Saint Matthew, offered in thanksgiving to Almighty God, and as a gift of beauty for our neighbourhood. The choir will be joined by violinists Kirsty Money and Celeste Jankowski, along with cellist Hilary Brown in the performance of a Magnificat attributed to Buxtehude, and a Te Deum by the 18th century Portuguese composer, Manuel de Moraes Pedroso.

The preacher for the evening will be the Honourable Mayann Francis, a former Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia. She was the first vice-regal representative in Canadian history to grant the Royal Prerogative of Mercy, Free Pardon which she conferred upon civil rights pioneer Ms Viola Desmond who lived and ran a business in the neighbourhood around St George's Church. Her Honour holds a Certificate in Theological Studies and an Honorary Doctorate from the Atlantic School of Theology. The daughter of an African-Orthodox priest, she is a member of the congregation at All Saints' Cathedral and often speaks publicly about the importance of her Christian faith in her life of public service.

Some of the local pastors and spiritual leaders from the neighbourhood will also be present to offer prayers for the Rector, for the parish, and the community. This will be an important opportunity for us to offer radical hospitality to our neighbours and to recommit ourselves to serving them through the power of God's Spirit. As we proclaim in our parish mission statement, "Saint George's dares to be shaped by the Inner City, yet seeks to transform our neighbourhood by preaching, in Word and action, the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

Fall Reading Group

Dr Wayne Hankey, Emeritus Professor of Classics at Dalhousie University will lead a reading group in the parish again this autumn. The group will consider Jane Austen's Persuasion, Graham Green's The Quiet American, and Dorothy Day's From Union Square to Rome. Dr Hankey writes, "We shall consider them as offering different answers to the ancient Hellenic and Christian idea that humans cannot act without doing evil." The sessions will be held on Monday evenings at 7 p.m. in the Round Church, beginning tomorrow, September 10th, and continue to the end of November. Copies of some of the texts and background notes prepared by Professor Hankey can be found on the parish website at www.roundchurch.ca. Click "Worship" and then "Study Groups and Retreats".

The Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity

excerpt from COMMON PRAYER: A Commentary on the Prayer Book
Lectionary

O Lord, we beseech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church; and because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This and the Collect for Trinity XXII are the only two Collects in which we make no mention of our personal needs specifically, but pray entirely for the needs of the whole Church.

O Lord, we beseech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church

We begin by asking God to cleanse the Church from sin and to defend it against the assaults of external foes. Cleansing implies the pollution of internal sin in its members. Jesus Christ once for all cleansed his Church by his atoning death on the cross. By his “one baptism for the remission of sins” he grants the saving benefits of that atoning death. But our hearts and wills are continually turning away from the saving and eternal love of God which is in Christ crucified and, therefore, the congregation of Christ’s flock is forever in need of cleansing by his Spirit. Today’s Epistle reminds us that we must be strengthened with might by the Holy Spirit; Christ must dwell in our hearts; we must be rooted and grounded in love.

We pray first that God would cleanse his Church, and then we pray him to defend it. If his Spirit does not continually cleanse the Church from sin, there can be no purpose to defend it. If the Church does not seek forgiveness, and its members are content rather to remain in their sins, the union of its members with Christ is broken (see John 15) and the Church becomes spiritually barren. ...because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness

Here we pray that God would govern and guide his Church. The Church must never be allowed to be guided by the easiest, the most convenient, or the least dangerous course, but always by the course mapped out by the truth of Holy Scripture.

The whole Collect is a warning against a spirit of over-confidence and arrogance in our view of the Church. How often do we make major decisions in the Church without due prayer, reflection and submission to the will of God as contained in the Holy Scriptures? It is not our Church, to do with as we please.

We are not fully purified from the defilements of the world (we must yet be cleansed); we are not safe from the attacks of the enemy (we must yet be defended); we are not able to guide our own course wisely (we must yet be governed and preserved). As a Church, pray that we may recognize our need to turn to God; it is because we are his Church that we dare lay claim to his cleansing, his defence and his guidance.
